

APPENDIX 6

GREEN BUILDING STANDARDS (RESERVED)

On the tentative implementation date of August 1, 2009, the County of Sonoma will require green building standards to be incorporated into all new conditioned residential structures. Documentation demonstrating adherence to performance based "Build it Green" green building standards will be required upon submittal. More information will be made available on the PRMD website when this ordinance is finalized and officially adopted.