RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF SONOMA, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, RECOGNIZING THE ORGANIZATIONS THAT HAVE MET BAY AREA STANDARDS FOR GREEN CERTIFICATION

WHEREAS, the County of Sonoma wishes to honor individuals, businesses and organizations whose efforts have contributed to the environmental quality of the community; and

WHEREAS, it is important for the County of Sonoma to encourage its own operations as well as local businesses to conserve natural resources, save energy and preserve the environment; and

WHEREAS, the County of Sonoma recognizes the importance of recognizing and rewarding businesses and county operations that operate in an environmentally responsible manner; and

WHEREAS, the Sonoma County Green Business Program, a partnership of environmental regulatory and resource conservation agencies and the business community, has adopted established Bay Area Green Business Program standards for resource conservation, pollution prevention and environmental regulatory compliance for businesses; and

WHEREAS, the Sonoma Green Business Program has verified that the eight businesses have met the Bay Area Green Business Program standards for “green” certification.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Sonoma hereby commits to recognizing as “green” these businesses for being newly certified in 2009:
