

Sonoma County's Pavement Preservation efforts have been supported through grant funding from The California Integrated Waste Management Board in 2009/2010. Through their Tire Management and Recycling program, Sonoma County was able to divert 24,869 tires from landfill and recycle them into a durable pavement surface.

